

Student Engagement Recognition Award for Academic Representation

Academic Representation is a core part of the student representative role. This award is primarily aimed at class reps from institutions that participate in NSiEP. The Student Recognition Award for Academic Representation is awarded for achievements in:

- Representing your peers
- Gathering feedback and views
- Sitting on committees
- Developing solutions to issues.
- Reflecting on successes and challenges
- Developing partnerships with staff

To achieve this award, student representatives complete three training and development activities during the academic year with NSiEP. Awards are issued on a rolling basis throughout April and May each year.

How to Achieve this Award

Step 1

Introductory Class Rep Training

Step 2

Complete one of the training options below:

Step 3

Submit a Reflective Report

Step 1: Complete NSiEP Introductory Class Rep Training

Introductory Class Rep Training is offered at participating institutions/student's unions throughout the autumn and early spring semester. If you were unable to participate in a training session at your institution/SU, you can alternatively sign up for a session on NSiEP's website at studentengagement.ie/book-training/. Keep your digital badge as proof of completing training.

Step 2: Complete one additional training option

Choose from one of the following training or development options:

- 1) Complete Representing Diversity training. This training runs at selected times during the autumn and early spring semesters and can be booked at studentengagement.ie/book-training/. Keep your digital badge as proof of completing this training for step 2.
- 2) Register for and complete one online self-study training module (studentengagement.ie/online-modules/). Download your certificate of completion when finished as proof of completing step 2.
- 3) Register for and attend the Student Voice Summit in the spring semester, then complete a short reflection form on what you learned. The reflection form will be emailed to participants before the event using the email address they provide on Eventbrite. The Student Voice Summit will be announced through NSiEP's mailing list, social media, and on NSiEP's website at studentengagement.ie/news/. Keep your digital badge as proof of completing step 2.

Step 3: Submit a Reflective Report on your Experiences as a Rep

Submit a short written reflection on your experiences and work as a class rep over the course of the academic year in April. At this time you will also upload proof that you completed steps 1 and 2. The reflective report can be submitted online at studentengagement.ie/reflective-report/
